Dear Colleagues,

We cordially invite you to the 15th International Symposium on Electron Beam Ion Sources and Traps (EBIST 2024) to be held from 27 to 30 August 2024 in Kielce, Poland. The EBIST 2024 will be organized by the Institute of Physics of the Jan Kochanowski University (UJK). The EBIST symposium has been held every three to four years since 1977. The previous two symposia took place on October 23-27, 2018 in Shanghai, China and June 14-17, 2022 in Whistler BC, Canada. The goal of EBIST 2024 symposium is to discuss the design, development, applications of electron beam ion sources and traps, as well as the physics with highly charged ions. Kielce is located in Central Poland, in the heart of the Holy Cross Mountains, situated between Warsaw and Cracow, the present and former Polish capitals. The EBIST 2024 conference will take place at the Faculty of Natural Sciences of the Jan Kochanowski University.

EBIST 2024 will cover the following topics:

- Progress and status of EBIS/T facilities
- EBIS/T physics including electron and ion beam optics and related simulations
- EBIS charge state breeder developments and operational experience
- Charge breeding of stable and radioactive isotopes
- Atomic spectroscopy of highly charged ions
- Applications of highly charged ions from EBIS/T

The program of the conference will consist of lectures and poster session.
